

More Than This—Words & Music by Jon Abel

Find song at iTunes or www.myspace.com/jonabel Bible study materials by Bethanie Carlson (2009)

don't leave me here
I'm all alone
no words to say
just skin and bones

chorus:
and I've tried
to stand on my own
I am tired
of all these games I play worn out
these useless words I say thirsty
for something more than this

Find Proverbs 3:5-6

* What are some things that you are trying to do all on your own?

I've crossed these stones this road I've made it was my own
not the path you've laid

Find Proverbs 16:9

* What does this verse mean for you and your life?

(chorus)

there's got to be more to see
outside my so-called reality I'm jumping on the edge of it and I've tried

to stand on my own
these tears I've cried I'm going to cry them alone because I am tired

of all these games I play
worn out
these useless words I say
thirsty
for something more than this

Check out John 4:13-14.

- What is the singer thirsty for?
- How can he quench his thirst?

I'm blinded
so my eyes might see I'm wanting
so much less of me
I'm hungry
for something so much more than this

Go to Acts 9: 1-17

* What did Saul see after he was blinded that he couldn't see before?

Find John 3:30

* What would this look like for you in your life?

After listening:

Do you find that you want “more than this” in your life? What are some steps that you can take to follow the idea of John 3:30?

Spend some time in prayer talking with God about this—ask Him to show you His ideas and plans.